

MICHAEL D. LITTEN PRESENTS DONATION TO SYNOVA ASSOCIATES FOR NICU
LEADERSHIP FORUM SCHOLARSHIPS

Roswell, GA, - January 19th, 2019 – At the grand opening of the new Ann Jackson Gallery location, Michael D. Litten, Founder of the Foundation for Premature Infants and fellow board member, Laura Cordell, presented a donation to Lori Gunther, Owner of Synova Associates.

The Ann Jackson Gallery www.annjacksongallery.com, as one of only 30 galleries in the world licensed by Dr. Seuss Enterprises, was the perfect setting for the donation. Although, the Grinch was in “the picture” he was not able to wrest the check from Lori’s hand.

The Foundation for Premature Infants donated $2,900 to be used for new NICU Leadership Forum scholarships available for NICU nurse leaders who live outside the United States. Michael D. Litten, Founder, commented that he was “honored to make the donation at the Ann Jackson Gallery because the Foundation’s core belief is, as Dr. Seuss’s icon character, Horton, said so succinctly and eloquently: ‘a person’s a person, no matter how small.’”
