

ANN JACKSON GALLERY AND MICHAEL D. LITTEN PRESENT DONATION TO CHILDREN'S HEALTHCARE OF ATLANTA

Roswell, GA, - March 2nd, 2017 – Today, on Theodor Seuss Geisel's birthday, at the Ann Jackson Gallery, Valerie Jackson and Michael D. Litten, Founder of the Foundation for Premature Infants, presented a donation to the Children's Healthcare of Atlanta Foundation.

The Ann Jackson Gallery generously donated a very limited edition lithograph from one of Dr Seuss's iconic books, Horton Hears a Who!. As one of only 30 galleries in the world licensed by Dr. Seuss Enterprises, Valerie Jackson, Ann Jackson Gallery owner, said she was "delighted to share this picture with all the families of premature babies who receive world class care at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta's three campuses."

The Foundation for Premature Infants donated $500 to be used for education purposes for the stellar group of clinicians who care for these fragile vulnerable little people. Michael D. Litten, Founder, commented that he was "honored to team up with Valerie and the Ann Jackson Gallery in making a joint donation because the Foundation's core belief is, as Horton said so succinctly and eloquently: 'a person's a person, no matter how small.'"
